NAR's Green Designation is designed for residential, commercial and property management professionals looking to green their businesses and their lives. It is also the only green designation for agents AND property managers recognized by the National Association of REALTORS®. When you earn NAR's Green Designation, you'll gain:

- A comprehensive understanding of what it means to go green and the concerns of consumers seeking green knowledge about real estate
- Valuable real estate education that broadens your abilities in the eyes your clients, prospective clients and associates
- Enhanced ability to participate in the green real estate market
- Ongoing specialized training and resources that help you stay on top of green real estate issues and trends
- Access to customizable members-only marketing tools to help you build your business and gain a competitive edge

To achieve the Green Designation Certification, applicants must be a member in good standing with the National Association of REALTORS® and complete the education requirements. This is the required core course, competitively priced at $295 for the full two-day program. You are also required to attend an additional elective program offered online and submit an application for designation. After the first year, there is a $99 per year fee to maintain the designation.
